Commencement 2008

The Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education and Counseling's 24th commencement ceremony will be held Sunday, June 1, 2008 at 10 a.m. in the Pamplin Sports Center. Highly regarded family therapist and author Chris Crutcher (pictured) will deliver the address. On May 31, he will also lead a workshop called "What Works with Kids." Commencement will be webcast live to those unable to attend; return to this page on Sunday morning to watch

Our Programs

25 MAY 2008

Education

Lewis & Clark offers master's and doctoral programs for students who hope to make an impact as teachers, education leaders, and school counselors.

Counseling Psychology

We provide future counselors and therapists with innovative programs of study in community counseling; addiction studies; marriage, couple and family therapy; psychological and cultural studies; and school psychology.
